Acknowledgement

To You, Oh God, I offer this,
with thanks—and with a prayer,
that all who ever touch this book will know how much You care.

So many are a part of it,
I could not thank them here.
So many that You will bless them,
and always hold them near.

Whatever age the reader,
where'er their life has led,
through what they find inside this book,
by You may they be fed.

—Fr. Joe Kempf

Introduction

If there is a child in your life, yours is a beautiful and holy calling; for God will love that child through you.

Your call is also difficult, for you will always be letting go. In that, you understand something at the heart of God.

Not for sale or distribution. The prayers in this book are for the children entrusted to your care...and also for you.

May your children find God through you. May you see the world anew through their eyes. And through it all, may you be able to trust that you are never alone.

In Jesus,
Father Joe

My Sister Is Annoying

My sister is annoying, God.
She might not try to be.
Though family is important,
it's also hard for me.

I do not always like her.
Yet, You live in her heart.
Deep down I love my sister.
Let this be a new start.
